

_____ God and honoring our _____ are things we should do for a lifetime, neither of which could or should be confined to a one hour Sunday morning service.

The words “_____ your father and mother,” aren’t just words, they're a _____.

Exodus 20:12

“Honor your father and mother. Then you will live a long time in the land the Lord your God is giving you.

Ephesians 6:2-3

“Honor your father and mother” (this is the first commandment with a promise), “that it may go well with you and that you may live long in the land.”

John 19:25-27

25 Jesus’ mother stood near his cross. So did his mother’s sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. 26 Jesus saw his mother there. He also saw the disciple he loved standing nearby. Jesus said to his mother, “Dear woman, here is your son.” 27 He said to the disciple, “Here is your mother.” From that time on, the disciple took her into his home.

Matthew 26:56b

Then all the disciples deserted him and fled.

Even if your mother has passed away, you can still _____ her, _____ her, and love her.

Proverbs 22:6

Bring up a child by teaching him the way he should go, and when he is old he will not turn away from it.
